Carolina Ale House Awards $9,500 to Guests

Chance to Win $1,000 Attracts Football Fans to MNF Game Watches

Raleigh, NC – It's Football Frenzy at Carolina Ale House. Just four short weeks into the regular NFL season, the restaurant group, which has 17 locations throughout the Southeast, has awarded $9,500 to guests who have guessed the correct final score of the Monday Night Football game. $7,000 of that total was given out this past Monday, when the Tampa Bay Buccaneers defeated the Indianapolis Colts 24 to 17. Monday's pay out was the greatest in the company's 12 year history.

Guests also have the chance to win one of two embroidered NFL football jerseys of the two competing teams on Mondays. The Guess the Correct Score & Jersey Giveaway promotions will continue every Monday night through the regular season at every Carolina Ale House location. Winners must be present to win.

Carolina Ale House, established in Raleigh in 1999, is a family-friendly, sports-themed restaurant concept. The group currently operates 17 locations; six locations in the Triangle, locations in Wilmington, Fayetteville, Greenville and Charlotte, NC, a small outlet in Terminal 2 of RDU International Airport, three locations South Carolina, one in Georgia and two in South Florida. The concept is slated to open three additional locations in the Carolinas in 2012.

LM Restaurants (LMR) is the parent company of Carolina Ale House and several other award-winning restaurants on the East Coast (www.lmrest.com). LMR was ranked the 13th fastest growing private company in the Triangle by the Triangle Business Journal in 2010. Taverna Agora (Raleigh) is an authentic Greek restaurant and bar. Oceanic (on Wrightsville Beach) offers fresh seafood and panoramic beachfront dining. Eddie Romanelli's (Leland) offers American Italian cuisine. Henry's (Wilmington) is a casual American restaurant, and Bluewater (Wrightsville Beach) is a picturesque waterfront grill situated on the Intracoastal Waterway.
